

Born on March 23,
1968 in Montpellier, France.

Patricia finished her university studies in art and plastic arts. As soon she finished her studies, she got fascinated by the colors of la Provence in France. As a watercolor painter, Patricia left France at the age of 23 and moved to the Island of Ibiza in Spain. After coming back to the continent, she moved to Brussels, Belgium.

Up to now, Patricia still enjoys painting the ancient city of Brussels in more particular the ancient buildings that the city of Brussels makes so beautiful.

Her creations are found in many exhibitions shown throughout the city of Brussels.

Discover her works and her paintings permanently in Brussels.

